Présentation

Located in the resort of Crans-Montana, not far from the famed Ballesteros Golf Course, this newly built chalet has just been completed and is ready for immediate occupancy. Set on a 1,614 m² plot in a residential neighborhood, it offers an appealing balance between tranquillity and easy access to the center's amenities. With approximately 318 m² of living space, the chalet comprises four bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bathroom for optimal comfort.

Outside, a hot tub allows you to make the most of the natural surroundings. Two garages complete the property.

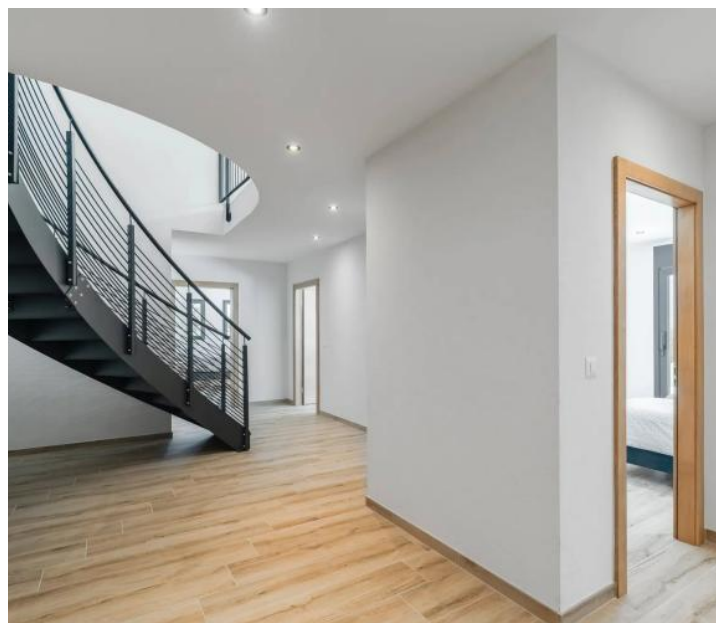

One of the home's key strengths is its outlook: wide, unobstructed views over the region's spectacular landscapes.

The chalet is equipped with a reversible heat pump, ensuring year-round energy efficiency.

This property offers a rare quality of life, combining altitude, nature, and direct access to the resort's advantages.
